Going Viral: Coronavirus lessons you can share with YOUR students

Wed. September 9, 2020

4 pm - 8 pm

Virtual session via Zoom

You will receive the link when you confirm your registration

Presented by:

Lt Col Tracy Clinton, PhD / USAF Chemist, Assistant Professor at United States Air Force Academy

Sandy Smith, Science Teacher -Falcon Homeschool Program

Jane Wilson, Science Teacher- Falcon Homeschool Program

Very Important to Remember ...

- You must pre-register and respond to a confirmation email. We have a limit of 25 participants.
- Bring your science notebook to the virtual meeting for notes, especially if you are planning on earning CSM credit.
- Confirmed registrants will receive the Zoom link on Tues. Sept. 8th via email.

HIGHLIGHTS - You will...

- ..... hear from a virus researcher whose doctoral work is helping inform current coronavirus research.
- ..... experience (virtually) a “Hands-On” activity where students explore the effectiveness of hand washing in reducing disease transmission.
- ..... receive fantastic materials you can use with YOUR students in YOUR classroom [teacher pandemic pack & set of glo germ and UV flashlight].
- ..... learn about a few other classroom activities focused on this current coronavirus pandemic that you can implement right away.
