Remember...

- to pre-register for this PALS Hub Meeting. Space is limited. Priority will be given to current secondary science classroom teachers if necessary.
- Bring your science notebook*!
- Masks required indoors. Please bring your own.
- You will need to cover your own parking costs, which you can minimize by carpooling. Information about parking will be provided separately.

* PALS provides a free science notebook at your first meeting of the year!

A light continental breakfast (pastries / muffins / scones, fresh fruit, coffee, tea, orange juice) will be available at the beginning of the workshop. It is being catered by the Flame Cafe. No outside food or drink allowed. Water bottles ok in education center only. No food or drink allowed in the galleries.

[Lunch is not included as part of the workshop. You are certainly welcome to have lunch in the Flame Cafe at your own cost after the workshop.]
